SYRIAN REFUGEES UPDATE

Many thanks to all of you for your generous contributions to the Refugee Support collection. Our total to date is $24,870.

FURNITURE & HOUSEHOLD ITEMS NEEDED

We will soon be assisting in the resettling of several Syrian Christian families in their own places to live. We will be needing household furniture (for all rooms) and other items (kitchen, bedding, etc.) for these families. Please email the following information to Bob at wrublesb@shaw.ca or drop off the information at the parish office:

- name and address
- telephone number(s)
- list of items you have available and wish to donate
- preferred time of day for pick up

Basic items are those most needed, e.g. single and double beds, kitchen/dining table and chairs, kitchen ware and living room sofas. Please note there will be size limitations for furniture since most of the accommodations will be apartments or condos. We thank you for your consideration of this request.

HELLO YOUTH(Ages 12-17) & YOUNG ADULTS/YOUNG AT HEART(18+)

This year's theme for St. Luke's Warriors is "Finding Freedom". We're achieving it by learning how to be a leader at St. Luke's and in community. Be a warrior of your faith, call to learn more, and meet Nancy with your parents who must register to know about upcoming events. Drop-in as schedule permits. Each youth receives a photo book with thank-you/volunteer letters and to journal what they learn. The youth with the most events attended and journaling completed by May will receive the St. Luke's Warrior leadership award.

YOUCAT for Singles and Married Couples has begun. Drop-in the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month for 6:30 Rosary, 7:00 Mass, 7:30- 8:30 pm Discussion and Socializing. Celebrate the faith and love within you to honor your vocation or discernment to marriage. We'll pray, celebrate mass, and discuss a current issue on single or married life. Together we support our current/future spouse by witnessing to each other to honor sacramental marriage in the spirit of our faith. Join in as your time permits!
